

Life in Australia – Australian values

The Australian Government encourages people to gain an understanding of Australia, its people and their way of life, before applying for a visa to live in Australia. As part of this application every person aged 18 years or over must declare that they will respect Australian values, as outlined below and obey the laws of Australia.

Australian values include respect for the freedom and dignity of the individual, freedom of religion, commitment to the rule of law, Parliamentary democracy, equality of men and women and a spirit of egalitarianism that embraces mutual respect, tolerance, fair play and compassion for those in need and pursuit of the public good.

Australian society also values equality of opportunity for individuals, regardless of their race, religion or ethnic background.

It is also important to understand that English is the national language.

Further information is contained in the Life in Australia booklet, however, you are not required to read the booklet. The booklet is available in a wide range of languages. If you would like a copy of the booklet it can be obtained from www.immi.gov.au

About this application

Important – Please read this information carefully before you complete your application. Once you have completed your application we strongly advise that you keep a copy for your records.

Who should use this application?

People who wish to apply for temporary residence in Australia for a specified period under one of the (non-business) visa subclasses listed on pages 7–10 should use this application.

If the visa subclass that you wish to apply for is NOT listed on pages 7–10 you should contact the nearest office of the Department of Immigration and Citizenship (the department) or overseas mission to find out which form you should be using. Alternatively, all the department's forms are available from www.immi.gov.au/allforms/

Who should be included in this application?

As the primary person you should include your details as well as all family members (secondary persons) who will be accompanying you, intend to join you in Australia, or intend to remain with you if you are already in Australia, except for the:

- New Zealand Citizen Family Relationship (subclass 461) visa – primary persons must be members of the family unit of Special Category (subclass 444) visa holders.
- Domestic Worker (Diplomatic or Consular) (subclass 426) visa – primary persons are not able to bring dependants on this visa.
- Retirement (subclass 410) visa and Investor Retirement (subclass 405) visa – primary persons are only able to include their partner on this visa application.

Family members include your partner, children under 18 years of age AND children and other relatives 18 years or over who are wholly or substantially reliant on you for financial support for their basic needs.

'Partner' means your spouse or de facto partner (including a same-sex partner).

People 18 years or over must show that they have been reliant on you for a substantial period and that they are more reliant on you than on any other person or source. A person may also be considered dependent on you if they rely on you for financial support because of a disability.

Note: A child of any age who is engaged to be married or who has a partner is not considered dependent.

Family members joining a temporary resident in Australia

If you are applying as a secondary person (ie. family member), either to join or remain with a temporary resident in Australia, you will need to apply for a visa in the same class and subclass as that held by the temporary resident.

If the subclass of visa requires you to be sponsored, you must show evidence that an organisation or eligible individual in Australia has sponsored you. If you were not included in the temporary resident's nomination you will need to provide a letter from the sponsor confirming that they will accept responsibility for you during your stay in Australia. In cases where a nomination is not required, all applicants must be listed in the invitation or letter of support.

Integrity of application

The department is committed to maintaining the integrity of the visa and citizenship programs. Please be aware that if you provide us with fraudulent documents or claims, this may result in processing delays and your application being refused.

Charges

Not all applications attract a charge, but when a prescribed charge is applicable, the application will not be valid unless payment has been received.

Payment of the charge does not guarantee this application will be successful and is generally not refundable.

Fees may be subject to adjustment at any time. Visa Application Charges may be subject to adjustment on 1 July each year.

To check the Visa Application Charge, see form 990i Charges available from the department's website www.immi.gov.au/allforms/990i.htm or check with the nearest office of the department.

Method of payment

In Australia

To make a payment, please pay by credit card, debit card, bank cheque or money order made payable to the Department of Immigration and Citizenship. Debit card and credit card are the preferred methods of payment.

Outside Australia

Before making a payment outside Australia, please check with the Australian Government office where you intend to lodge your application as to what methods of payment and currencies they can accept and to whom the payment should be made payable.

Sponsorship obligations

The sponsor must meet a number of sponsorship obligations in relation to the primary person and any secondary persons. Further information about sponsorship obligations is available from the department's website www.immi.gov.au/skilled/

If your visa application is approved, it will permit you to work or undertake activities for your sponsor in the nominated position, or position in relation to which your visa was granted, for the visa validity period. Should you cease employment or the activities with your sponsor, or if you believe the sponsor is not meeting their sponsorship obligations, you should contact your nearest office of the department.

Other obligations

The sponsor must also comply with other applicable laws of the Commonwealth, states and territories. If the department believes that the sponsor has breached a law of the Commonwealth, a state or territory, the department may take action to bar the sponsor from accessing further overseas people for the specified period or may result in cancellation of the sponsorship.

Further information about sponsorship obligations is available from the department's website www.immi.gov.au/skilled/

Medical and x-ray examinations

All applicants are required to meet health requirements. Formal health examinations may be requested depending on length of stay, whether an applicant is likely to enter a classroom situation, or is considered to be of 'special significance' in terms of health.

Your health may be of 'special significance' if you:

- are likely to enter a hospital or health care area (including nursing homes) for any purpose;
- intend to work as a doctor, dentist or nurse;
- are likely to be engaged at an Australian preschool-aged child care centre (including preschools or creches), as either an employee or trainee; or
- if there are indications you may not meet the health requirement.

Please enquire about health assessment procedures and forms at the office where you intend to lodge this application. Information on health requirements is available from the department's website

www.immi.gov.au/allforms/health-requirements/

Health insurance requirements

You are required to hold adequate private medical and hospital health insurance cover for the period you are in Australia. This insurance cover does not have to be held with an Australian insurer – arrangements made in your home country may be assessed as being acceptable. You need to ensure your health insurance cover will provide for medically necessary treatment for the entire period of your stay. Your visa may be cancelled if you do not maintain adequate health insurance cover.

The above may not apply if you are enrolled with Medicare (Australia's national health cover). Information on entitlements to Medicare is available from www.medicare.gov.au

How to apply

Step 1 – Sponsorship or letter of invitation

Check the tables on pages 7–10 to determine the subclass of visa you should apply for, and whether your application needs to be supported by a sponsor, nomination or written invitation.

If you are required to be sponsored, your visa application cannot be accepted if your sponsor has not already lodged a sponsor application. The visa application will not be assessed until the sponsor application is decided. We recommend that you lodge your visa application after you receive confirmation that the sponsor and nomination (if required) are approved.

Step 2 – Nomination

Check the tables on pages 7–10 to determine if the subclass of visa requires nomination.

If it does, the nomination should be lodged before your visa application, except if applying for an Entertainment visa where you will need to lodge both the nomination and visa application together. In all other cases, we recommend that you lodge your visas application after the nomination has been approved.

Step 3 – Complete the application

Please use a black or blue pen, and write neatly in English using BLOCK LETTERS.

If you need more space to answer questions or wish to provide additional relevant information, attach a signed and dated sheet giving the required details.

Any alterations made before you lodge the form must be initialled and dated.

You will need to supply 2 recent passport-sized photographs of each person included in your application.

Step 4 – Lodging your visa application

To lodge your visa application you must provide the completed application, payment and any attachments if required. Refer to additional documentary requirements on pages 7–10, and at Part N.

Applications for the following visas may be lodged in person, by a representative or sent by mail or fax:

- Government Agreement (subclass 406);
- Exchange (subclass 411);
- Foreign Government Agency (subclass 415);
- Visiting Academic (subclass 419);
- Sport (subclass 421);
- Domestic Worker (subclass 426 or subclass 427); or
- Religious Worker (subclass 428) visa.

For other temporary residence visas please see special instructions on pages 3 and 4.

What happens after you lodge the visa application?

If sponsorship and/or nomination is a requirement of the subclass of visa, these will need to be decided before your visa application can be assessed. In some cases you may be asked to provide additional information to enable a decision to be made.

You will be advised in writing whether your application has been approved or not.

If your application is refused, you will be given a reason for the decision as well as information about any review rights.

Applications made by people who are in Australia

If you are applying for a class of visa which may be granted in Australia, this form also serves as an application for any class of Bridging visa (Classes A, C or E) for which you may be eligible to apply. Further explanation is contained in the information form 1024i Bridging visas available at all offices of the department in Australia.

If you need to travel overseas temporarily before the application is decided, you should contact the processing office to enquire about a Bridging visa B, to enable you to return to Australia.

If you are seeking to change the work conditions of your existing visa before the application is decided, you should apply on form 1005 Application for a bridging visa.

You should lodge the form at the nearest office of the department in the state or territory in which you are at the time of application (if you are in NSW, you may lodge your application in the ACT if it is closer to where you live).

This application will not be valid if you are a holder of a criminal justice entry visa, or if you are a detainee who has not made an application within the prescribed time limits, or if you are a holder of a visa subject to a condition preventing the grant of a substantive visa while you remain in Australia.

Residential address

You must provide the address of where you intend to live during the period that your application is being considered. Failure to give your residential address will result in this application being invalid. A post office box address will not be accepted as your residential address.

Passport information

Most visa applicants will be required to hold a valid passport before they can be granted a visa. It is strongly recommended that the passport be valid for at least 6 months.

If you change your passport after you have been granted the visa you must notify the nearest Australian mission or office of the department.

If you do not provide us with the details of any new or additional passport you use to travel to Australia, you may experience significant delays at the airport and may be denied permission to board your plane.

Do NOT send your passport with your visa application.

Provide with your visa application a certified copy of the page from your passport showing your photo and details. We will advise you if your application has been approved and where you should go to have a visa label placed in your passport, if required.

Let the department know if you change your address

If you change your residential address for more than 14 days while your application is being processed, you must tell the department your new address and how long you will be there. The department will send communication about your application to the latest address for correspondence you have provided.

Communication about your application can be sent to another person that you have authorised, but you will be taken to have received the communication that the department sends to that person. The department must be informed (in writing) of any address change for either you or your authorised person.

Work restrictions

If your visa application is approved, in most cases (see pages 7–10) it will be subject to mandatory visa condition 8107. This means that visa holders must not, during their period of stay:

- cease to be employed, or cease to undertake the activity in relation to which the visa was granted;
- work in a position, or engage in an activity inconsistent with the position or activity, in relation to which the visa was granted; or
- engage in work for another person or on your own account, while undertaking the employment or activity in relation to which the visa was granted.

About the information you give

The department is authorised to collect information provided on this form under Part 2 of the Migration Act 1958 'Control of Arrival and Presence of Non-Citizens'. The information provided will be used for assessing your application, and for other purposes relating to the administration of the Migration Act.

To ensure the integrity of temporary residence visas, the department has a thorough monitoring process to assist in ensuring compliance with all program requirements and all relevant Australian laws.

The department may disclose your information to other Commonwealth, state and territory government departments and agencies for the purpose of administering migration legislation, and when it may assist another agency to perform a regulatory function. The departments and agencies include the Fair Work Ombudsman, Department of Education, Employment and Workplace Relations, Australian Taxation Office and Commonwealth, state and territory departments and agencies responsible for the regulation of education, health, workplace safety, workplace training, public safety, industrial relations, law enforcement, taxation, superannuation, fair trading, trade practices or registration, licencing in relation to an occupation and review of decisions and regulation of migration agents.

The information provided might also be disclosed to departments and agencies who need to know for the purpose of running the Pacific Seasonal Worker Pilot Scheme.

The information provided on this form, including any information on your health, will be used to assess your health for an Australian visa and may be disclosed to the relevant Commonwealth, state and territory health agencies, registration authorities and examining doctor(s).

Form 1163i Health Requirement for temporary entry to Australia provides additional information on Australia's visa health requirements. Form 1163i is available at offices of the department or from the department's website www.immi.gov.au/allforms/

The collection, access, storage, use and disclosure by the department of the information you provide in this form is governed by the Privacy Act 1988 and, in particular, by the 11 Information Privacy Principles. The information form 993i Safeguarding your personal information, available from the offices of the department, gives details of agencies to which your personal information might be disclosed.

The department is authorised under the Migration Act 1958, in certain circumstances, to collect a range of personal identifiers including a facial image, fingerprints and a signature, from non-citizens, including from visa applicants. The department requires personal identifiers to assist in assessing your identity. The department is authorised to disclose your personal identifiers and information relating to your name and other relevant biographical data to a number of agencies including law enforcement and health agencies and, other agencies who may need to check your identity with this department. Where the department obtains personal identifiers they will become part of your official record with the department.

The department is involved in international information exchanges with a number of other countries. These exchanges include the sharing of personal identifiers, including a facial image and fingerprint data collected by immigration agencies such as this department. If, as a result of this sharing between countries, there is a match with your personal identifiers, the department will disclose your biographical data and immigration history to the other agency. The purpose of such disclosure would be to determine if you are presenting to the department and the other agency under the same identity and/or making similar claims.

For more detailed information you should read form 1243i Your Personal Identifying Information, which is available from the department's website www.immi.gov.au/allforms/ or from any office of the department.

When sponsorship is required for your visa subclass, the outcome of your application may be made known to the person/organisation who has submitted a sponsorship form regarding your application.

Consent to communicate electronically

The department may use a range of means to communicate with you. However, electronic means such as fax or e-mail will only be used if you indicate your agreement to receiving communication in this way.

To process your application the department may need to communicate with you about sensitive information, for example, health, police checks, financial viability and personal relationships. Electronic communications, unless adequately encrypted, are not secure and may be viewed by others or interfered with.

If you agree to the department communicating with you by electronic means, the details you provide will only be used by the department for the purpose for which you have provided them, unless there is a legal obligation or necessity to use them for another purpose, or you have consented to use for another purpose. They will not be added to any mailing list.

The Australian Government accepts no responsibility for the security or integrity of any information sent to the department over the internet or by other electronic means.

If you authorise another person to receive documents on your behalf and they wish to be contacted electronically, their signature is required on the form to indicate their consent to this form of communication.

Note: Electronic communication is the fastest means of communication available and the department prefers to communicate electronically because this results in faster processing.

Options for receiving written communications

You may authorise another person to receive all communications, both written and electronic, about your application with the department. You will be taken to have received any documents sent to that person as if they had been sent to you.

To do this you will need to complete Part L Options for receiving written communications and form 956 Appointment of a migration agent or exempt agent or other authorised recipient. For an explanation of what a migration agent or exempt agent or authorised recipient can do please read the sections below.

To change or end the appointment of your migration agent or exempt agent or authorised recipient you must promptly advise the department in writing. You can do this by using form 956 Appointment of a migration agent or exempt agent or other authorised recipient.

Authorised recipient information

An authorised recipient is someone you appoint to receive written communications about your application with the department.

All written communication about your application will be sent to your authorised recipient, unless you indicate that you wish to have health and/or character information sent directly to you.

The department will communicate with the most recently appointed authorised recipient as you may only appoint one authorised recipient at any time for a particular application.

Migration agent information

A migration agent is someone who can:

- advise you on the visa that may best suit you;
- tell you the documents you need to submit with your application;
- help you fill in the application and submit it; and
- communicate with the department on your behalf.

If you appoint a migration agent, the department will assume that your migration agent will be your authorised recipient, unless you indicate otherwise.

Your migration agent will be the person with whom the department will discuss your application and from whom it will seek further information when required.

You are not required to use a migration agent. However, if you use a migration agent, the department encourages you to use a registered migration agent. Registered agents are bound by the Migration Agents Code of Conduct, which requires them to act professionally in their clients' lawful best interests.

Immigration assistance

A person gives immigration assistance to you if he or she uses, or claims to use, his or her knowledge or experience in migration procedure to assist you with your visa application, request for ministerial intervention, cancellation review application, sponsorship or nomination.

In Australia a person may only lawfully give immigration assistance if he or she is a registered migration agent or is exempt from being registered. Only registered migration agents may receive a fee or reward for providing immigration assistance.

If an unregistered person in Australia, who is not exempt from registration, gives you immigration assistance they are committing a criminal offence and may be prosecuted.

Migration agents in Australia

Migration agents in Australia must be registered with the Migration Agents Registration Authority (MARA) unless they are exempt from registration.

Migration agents outside Australia

Migration agents who operate outside Australia do not have to be registered. The department may give some overseas agents an ID number. This number does not mean that they are registered.

Note: Some Australian registered migration agents operate overseas.

Exempt agents

The following people do not have to be a registered migration agent in order to provide immigration assistance, but they must not charge a fee for their service:

- a close family member (spouse, de facto partner, child, parent, brother or sister);
- a sponsor or nominator for this visa application;
- a member of parliament or their staff;
- an official whose duties include providing immigration assistance (eg. a Legal Aid provider);
- a member of a diplomatic mission, consular post or international organisation.

Further information on migration agents

Information on migration agents, including a list of registered migration agents, is available on the Migration Agents Registration Authority (MARA) website www.themara.com.au

You can also access information about migration agents on the department's website www.immi.gov.au

The holder must not:

- cease to engage in the most recently nominated occupation, program or activity in relation to which the visa holder is identified;
- engage in work or an activity that is inconsistent with the most recently nominated occupation, program or activity in relation to which the visa holder is identified; or
- engage in work or an activity for an employer(s) other than the employer identified in the most recent nomination for the visa holder.

Condition 8109 states you must not change details of times and places of engagements specified in the application to be undertaken in Australia during the visa period, without the prior permission in writing from the department.

Condition 8110 states that you:

- i) must not engage in work in Australia except in the household of the employer in relation to whom the visa was granted; and
- ii) must not work in a position or occupation inconsistent with the position or occupation in relation to which the visa was granted; and
- iii) must not engage in work for another person or on your own account while undertaking the employment in relation to which the visa was granted; and
- iv) must not cease to be employed by the employer in relation to which the visa was granted, unless paragraph (v) applies; and
- v) except with the written permission of the Foreign Minister, must not remain in Australia after the permanent departure of that employer.

Condition 8111 states you must not remain in Australia after the permanent departure of your employer.

Condition 8303 states you must not become involved in activities disruptive to, or violence threatening harm to, the Australian community or a group within the Australian community.

Condition 8501 states you must maintain adequate arrangements for health insurance while you are in Australia.

Condition 8516 states you must continue to be a person who would satisfy the primary or secondary criteria, as the case requires, for the grant of the visa.

Part O – Declaration

56 WARNING: Giving false or misleading information is a serious offence.

This declaration must be signed by the main applicant and each accompanying person over 18.

I declare that:

- The information that has been provided on this form, and on any attachments to it, is complete and correct in every detail;
- I acknowledge that I have read the notes at the front of this application. I am aware of the conditions that may apply and that I am required to abide by them;
- Any registration or licensing that is required before I can begin employment in Australia will be my responsibility;
- I am aware that I must advise the Department of Immigration and Citizenship immediately I am aware of a change in circumstances relating to any information I have provided in or with this application;
- I understand that the effect of the 8503 visa condition is that it will not be possible for me to apply to remain in Australia beyond the authorised period of stay of my visa. I agree to having this condition included on any visa issued to me as a result of this application;
- I acknowledge that I understand that if the 8503 visa condition is imposed on my visa, it will be indicated on the visa label by the condition code '8503' and by the short description 'No Further Stay'. I acknowledge that this means that the 8503 condition has been imposed on my visa, that I am required to depart Australia on or before the date or time period notified on my visa label and that I understand the restriction that Condition 8503 places on me. I will advise my sponsor (if any) regarding the imposition of the condition to ensure that they understand that such a condition is attached to my visa;
- I understand that if condition 8107 is imposed on my visa, it will be indicated on the visa label or in documents given to me by the department about the grant of my visa by the condition code '8107';
- I acknowledge that where condition 8107 is imposed on my visa, it means that my work or activity will be restricted and I understand the restriction that condition 8107 places on me;
- I understand that if condition 8501 is imposed on my visa, it will be indicated on the visa label or in documents given to me by the department about the grant of my visa by the condition code '8501';
- I understand that if my visa is granted it may be subject to condition 8501;
- I will respect Australian values as listed on this form, during my stay in Australia and will obey the laws of Australia.
